

Amber Kuileimailani Bonnici

Intuitive Creativity Coach &
Creative Business Mentor

AMBER KUIELEIMAILANI BONNICI

is a intuitive creativity coach and creative business mentor. She helps women unblock their creativity and share their creative work in the world. She helps women write their books, start creative businesses, finish their paintings, get their art in galleries, and mentors them so they can lead workshops and retreats of their own. Have you ever told yourself that you're not creative? Have you ever told yourself that you're not creative? Felt blocked and want to know how to enter creative flow? Or want to live the creative life? As more of our world moves to automation and technology, creativity and out of the box thinking is what will set you apart. It's what makes you unique. It's time to awaken your creative power, to enter creative flow. Be playful, passionate, and uncensored. Own your uniqueness, your self-expression. Amber teaches women how to embrace their unique creativity, build a daily practice around it, and use that power to influence others. Join the thousands of women who've said YES to their self-expression. Create. Inspire. Influence.
